cell#: 757-303-2507

Course dates: Thursday, September 9th to October 30th, 2021

Weekly Zoom Meetings Thursdays 6:30-8PM

Course Purpose:

Understanding how to read the Bible is foundational for all who profess a saving faith in Jesus. God speaks to us through His Word therefore we must approach this collection of ancient books with reverence and a deep sense of humility. We depend on the Holy Spirit to reveal God's truth to us so we can apply it to our lives. We will learn how to investigate the Bible's historical-cultural context, the literary context, literary styles, how to determine theological principles, and to be aware of what we bring to the text. This course presents a simple, systematic approach to read the Word of God with greater depth of understanding and to be able to teach others to do the same.

Course Policies:

Development and Strengthening of Biblical Interpretation Competency:

- So that the student is aware of continuing evaluation and assessment, our faculty is using criteria for student competency that we are seeking in the area of biblical interpretation, as reflected in the paragraph below. Toward that end, we have specified competencies that the student will develop and demonstrate as a result of each course in the Theology core.
- Biblical interpretation: The student understands the Bible in its historical, literary, and theological contexts in order to apply and communicate the Scriptures.
 - Level 1 – The student is able to carry out inductive Bible study by means of observation, interpretation, application, and correlation.
 - Level 2 – The student is able to practice elements of biblical study that reflect sound hermeneutics.
 - Level 3 – The student is able to interpret the Bible and do biblical theology using a method that engages in the analysis and synthesis of Bible books and that reflects a broad knowledge of the content of the entire Bible, together with historical and theological influences.
 - Level 4 – The student is able to conduct exegetical and biblical theological research in from multiple literary genres, and is able to communicate its significance leading to spiritual transformation.

The Hermeneutics – How to Read the Bible course contributes to competency in Levels 1 through 3, depending on the baseline background level of biblical literacy each student brings to the course and provides a means and method for all students to progress to the next level of exegetical proficiency necessary for spiritual transformation.

The Presence of the Instructor:

You can expect your instructor to participate substantially in this course. In addition to producing the videotaped lectures for each module and reviewing all assignments, the instructor will participate in each Zoom class meeting for all eight modules of the course. Should students have questions about the course materials and/or assignments they may address them to the instructor via email.

Late Assignments:

No late assignments will be accepted unless due to an extreme emergency.
